Any oral testimony will be limited in scope and time only to the specific issues raised in the applicant's motion. All ex parte matters must be set for hearing except:

Absent such disclosure, attorneys' fees and costs incurred to reinstate the status quo may be awarded.

Ex Parte Actions Disfavored.

The declarations must describe why the ex parte request cannot be heard on the court's regular motion calendar.

A declaration regarding notice must be filed with the court.
 - (1) The contents of the notice must include the nature of the relief requested, and the date, time and place for the presentation of the application.
 - (2) Notice may be waived only if the alleges that party such notification may negate the benefit of the requested relief, or frustrate the purpose of the proposed order, or that the applicant would suffer immediate and irreparable injury before the other party can oppose the motion. Notice may also be excused if, following a good faith attempt, the giving of notice is not possible. See Local Form FL-06 (A).

I am further advised that conviction of any crime may adversely affect my immigration status, and could result in deportation or exclusion from the United States, denial of admission to the United States, or denial of naturalization, amnesty, or certain federal appeals.
21.a	I understand that being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, impairs the ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. Therefore, it is extremely dangerous to human life to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both. If I continue to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, and, as a result of that driving, someone is killed, I can be charged with murder.
	I understand that a plea of no contest (nolo contendere) will have exactly the same effect in this case as a plea of guilty, but it cannot be used against me in a civil lawsuit unless the offense is punishable as a felony.
23.	I understand that my plea entered in this case may be grounds for revoking probation or parole that has been previously imposed on me in any other case.
24.	I understand that in addition to the fine imposed, the law requires the Court to add assessments that will significantly increase the amount I must pay. I understand that I may also be ordered (1) to make restitution to the victim, if the offense involved a victim, or to a Restitution Fund, and (2) to pay the expenses incurred by a public agency that responded to any incident caused by my vehicle at the time of my arrest.
25.	I understand that the DMV may consider any of my prior convictions for driving under the influence or reckless driving that are not charged in this proceeding and impose a more severe license restriction, suspension, or revocation as a result of my uncharged conviction(s).
26	If applicable – I understand that if my blood-alcohol content was.20 percent or above, or if I refused to submit to a chemical test, the Court shall consider this in determining whether to enhance the penalties imposed on me, to grant probation, or to impose additional terms and conditions of probation.
27	If applicable- I understand that if I am convicted of Vehicle Code §23152, and I am the registered owner of the vehicle used in the offense:
	A. The Court shall impound my vehicle at my expense for up to 90 days, unless it determines that it is in the interests of justice not to do so; and
	B. The Court may declare my vehicle to be a nuisance and order it sold following a hearing if I have two or more other convictions of driving under the influence (Vehicle Codes §§23152 or 23153), or vehicular manslaughter (Penal Code §§191.5 or 192(c)(3)), or any combination thereof, in the past ten years.

GENERAL INFORMATION

UNLAWFUL DETAINER: PLAINTIFF

Often, the Plaintiff is the landlord but can be any person with a legal right to possession of the residence. The Defendant is often the tenant, but can be any person living in the residence whom the plaintiff wishes to evict. If the Landlord does not list all the adult occupants as defendants, then the eviction may not be used against any unnamed people. Please follow the basic instructions below. You may apply for a fee waiver if you cannot afford the filing fee. You may need more than the forms listed. You can get free forms on www.courts.ca.gov/forms

		Before starting this case, you must have already given proper notice to the tenant to pay, or perform, or to quit. To start the eviction case, the landlord normally must pay a filing fee and submit to the court an

Remember to avoid these common mistakes:

- Spell everyone's name correctly or else your judgment may not be enforceable.
- If you do not know the names of all the adult occupants, you must serve them with a copy of the Summons and Complaint as well as a blank Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession.
- If you do not serve unnamed occupants in the way described above, even if you have an order to evict the named tenants, the unnamed occupants can delay their own eviction by filing a Claim of Possession (Form CP 10).

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF IMPERIAL 939 W. Main Street El Centro CA 92243

GENERAL INFORMATION UNLAWFUL DETAINER: DEFENDANT

If your landlord served you with an Unlawful Detainer case, you must decide if you want to answer. You may state defenses in a written "Answer" and file it at court within 5 days after you receive the Summons and Complaint. If you do not answer or if your answer is late, you might lose the case, be evicted, and have money and property taken without warning. Thus you may wish to still file an "Answer" even if you leave the property. You may apply for a fee waiver if you cannot afford the filing fee. You may need more than the forms listed. You can get free forms on www.courts.ca.gov/forms.

1	Answer the case	If you are a named defendant, fill out the "Answer" to explain your defenses: Answer-Unlawful Detainer (UD-105) file within 5 days. Or, If you are an un-named adult occupant and you were served a Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession fill out the following to explain your defenses: Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession (CP10.5) file within 10 days Answer-Unlawful Detainer (Form UD-105) file within 5 days thereafter
2	Serve a copy	After you fill out the forms, you must give a full copy of it to the landlord or the landlord's attorney. This is called "service." To serve correctly, do not give a copy on your own. Correct service means that someone 18 years or older and not involved in the case sends the copy through first class mail. After the server mails the copy, fill out the following form after prove that the landlord was mailed a copy: Proof of Service of Summons (POS-010)
3	Wait	Take the original Answer and original Proof of Service to the court to file with the clerk. There may be a filing fee, and you may qualify for a fee waiver. Be ready for your hearing.

Remember to avoid these common mistakes:

- Watch deadlines, you have only 5 days from service to take your answer to court. If the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday, you can file your written response on the following Monday or non-holiday.
- If you are not named on the Summons and Complaint and you were served with a Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession, you may follow step 2 above. If you stay silent, you can be evicted.
- If you are not named on the Summons and Complaint and you were not served with a Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession, the judgment will not necessarily be binding on you. This means that when the eviction notice is posted, you have the chance to file a Claim of Possession (Form CP 10). You must pay the Court's filing fee or complete a fee waiver within 2 court days. You must also deliver to the court 15 days' rent to receive a hearing in 15 days. If you do not pay the deposit, the court will hold the hearing within 5 days.

Mediation Process

1. DISPUTED CHILD CUSTODY OR VISITATION

If you and the other party cannot agree upon the amount of time that the child will spend with each of you, California law requires you and the other party to participate in mediation concerning the disputed issues. Mediation is an informal process during which parties meet separately and together with a mediator trained to resolve custody and visitation disputes.

2. BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD

The Mediator is required to use his or her best efforts to help the parties reach an agreement that is in the best interests of the child. The best interests of the child are based on factors including the health, safety, and welfare of the child, the nature and amount of contact with each party, and history of abuse, habitual use of alcohol, or illegal drugs by either party.

3. HISTORY OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Whenever there is a history of domestic violence between the parties, the mediator is required to meet with the parties separately.

4. SCHEDULING MEDIATION/ISSUES TO BE DISCUSSED

Mediation scheduling may be made by a judge, or stipulated by the parties to advance mediation. Issues mediated will be strictly limited to custody and visitation issues.

5. IF YOU REACH AN AGREEMENT

If the parties reach an agreement, the agreement will be put in writing and may be signed by the parties before they leave the meeting. The agreement can be made a court order at the next hearing before a judge.

6. LEGAL TERMS YOU WILL NEED TO UNDERSTAND

- Joint Legal Custody: Both parties share the right and the responsibility to make the decisions relating to the health, education, and welfare of the child.
- Sole Legal Custody: One party has the right and responsibility to make decisions relating to the health, education, and welfare of the child.
- Joint Physical Custody: Each of the parties has significant periods of physical custody, and the child is assured of frequent and continuing contact with both parties.
- Sole Physical Custody: A child resides with and is under the supervision of one party, subject to the power of the Court to order visitation.

Possible Custody Arrangements

	JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY: Parties share right/responsibility to make decisions relating to health, education and welfare of child	AND	JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY: Parties have significant periods of physical custody; child has frequent and continuing contact with both parties
OR	JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY: Parties share right/responsibility to make decisions relating to health, education and welfare of child	AND	SOLE PHYSICAL CUSTODY TO ONE PARTY: Child resides with and is under supervision of one party, subject to other's visits.
OR	SOLE LEGAL CUSTODY TO ONE PARTY: One party has right/responsibility to make decisions	AND	PARTY: Child resides with and is under supervision of one party, subject to other's visits.

Proceso de Mediación

1. CUSTODIA DE MENORES O VISITA DISPUTADAS

Si usted y la otra parte no logran acordar sobre la cantidad de tiempo que su hijo pasará con cada uno de ustedes, La Ley de California requiere que las partes participen en mediación respecto a los temas en disputa. La Mediación es un procedimiento informal durante el cual las partes comparecen ya sea de forma separada ó conjuntamente con un mediador capacitado para resolver disputas de custodia o visita.

2. MEJOR INTERES DEL MENOR O MENORES

El Mediador esta obligado a desempeñar su mejor esfuerzo para ayudar a las partes a que alcancen un acuerdo conforme al mejor interés del menor o menores. El mejor interés del menor esta basado en factores tales como salud, seguridad y bienestar del menor, existencia de algún antecedente de abuso por de las partes hacia con el menor, así como el tiempo de convivencia del menor con ambas partes, y el uso habitual de alcohol o drogas ilegales por cualquiera de las partes.

3. ANTECEDENTES DE VIOLENCIA DOMESTICA

En caso de existir antecedentes de violencia domestica entre las partes, el mediador esta obligado a reunirse con las partes de forma separada.

INSTRUCTIONS

Findings and Orders After Hearing

A minute order from the hearing may contain the decisions in your case, but it is not the order because it is not signed by the judge. A moving party filing a motion or a Request for Order shall provide a Proposed Findings and Order After Hearing at the time of filing or in open court. Otherwise, prepare the Order after the hearing, according to the instructions below.

	g, according to the mana
1	Prepare the Orders	Get a copy of the Court's minute order of the hearing. Fill out the Findings and Order After Hearing according to the minute order. You can buy the forms in the clerk's office or download them for free at http://www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm Start with FL-340, and enter the date and courtroom where the case was heard, the name of the judge, the people who attended, and what type of orders the judge made. Do not sign this page. Add additional pages as needed to accurately reflect the orders.
2	Serve a copy	After you finish the proposed orders, you must send it within 10 days of the hearing date to the other party for approval. Make a copy. Send it with the "Letter to the Other Party" attached to this packet that explains time limits and options, as required in Section CRC 5.125.
3	Wait	The other party has 20 days from the hearing date to review the proposed orders. If the other party receives the proposed orders, they should obtain a copy of the minute order and compare for accuracy. If there are mistakes, the other party must notify you within 20 days from the hearing date. If the proposed orders are correctly prepared, the other party should sign the first page to approve the order within 20 days from the hearing date and return it to you to be submitted for review and signature by the Court. If the other party does nothing during the twenty-day period, you may submit the proposed orders for review and signature by the Court within 25 days of the hearing.
4	File	After the 20 days have passed, you may now take the approved orders signed by the other party, or the unsigned proposed orders with the "Letter to the Court," to the Family Law Department. Be sure to file your original with at least two copies. Include a self addressed and stamped envelope for the clerk to mail back your copies signed by the judge. This must be done within 25 days of the hearing.
5	Serve a Copy	After the judge signs the orders, the clerk will use your stamped envelope to mail your copies back to you. Keep one copy. Serve the second copy to the other party by mail, sign the proof of service, and file with the court.
6	For Child Support Orders	If there are any child support orders, both parties must complete a Child Support Case Registry (FL-191). You may also fill out an Income Withholding for Support (FL-195) and an Ex Parte Application for Earnings Assignment Order (FL-430) for payments to be processed through the State Disbursement Unit. To find out more about wage assignments, call the State Disbursement Unit at 866-325-1010, or the California Department of Child Support Services at 866-901-3212. You may also contact the Court's Access Center at accesscenter@imperial.courts.ca.gov.

This instructional packet is designed as a tool to assist you. It may not include all information that is legally required, is not legal advice, and should not be used as a substitute for legal advice from an attorney licensed by the State Bar of California. EX PARTE APPLICATIONS – FAMILY LAW

- 1. WHAT IS AN EX PARTE APPLICATION? A request for an "ex parte" order is made by submitting papers asking the judge to make orders without giving the other party the usual amount of notice. For example, applications for court orders are made by giving the other party at least 16 court days' notice. However, if you need to have your hearing earlier than 16 court days before the hearing, you may ask the court for an ex parte order to shorten the time for service and filing.
- 2. IS AN EX PARTE APPLICATION REQUIRED FOR MY ISSUE? There is no need for an ex parte application for written stipulations; Default judgments; Joint requests for advanced stipulation for mediation-Local Form (FL-05); Wage and earnings assignment order-Judicial Council Form (FL-435); Restoration of former name after judgment or Order for Publication or posting. Submit these documents to the family law filing clerk for judicial officer signature.

3. EX PARTE APPLICATIONS FOR CHILD CUSTODY AND CHILD VISITATION ARE STRONGLY DISFAVORED

- Ex parte applications regarding child custody and visitation will be granted only upon a clear showing of immediate harm to the child or immediate risk that the child will be removed from California. Family Code § 3064(a).
- "Immediate harm to the child" includes, but is not limited to, having a parent who has committed recent domestic violence, or domestic violence that is part of a continuing pattern, and sexual abuse of the child, where the acts of sexual abuse are recent, or are part of a continuing pattern of sexual abuse. Family Code § 3064(b)
- Ex parte applications to change a child's vacation, school or holiday schedule are disfavored. If you have a need for the court to hear such a matter, the court may make an order shortening time and notice for the matter to be heard.
- 4. IF I WANT TO MAKE AN EX PARTE APPLICATION, WHAT PAPERS DO I NEED TO FILE? Fill out and file: a) Local Form FL-06(A) Declaration re: Ex Parte Notice, and b) Local Form FL-06(B) Application in Support of Ex Parte Request, and c) Local Form GN-01 Request for Hearing, d) Request for Order FL-300 and include Temporary Order FL-305 if temporary order is being requested. Local Form FL-06(A) Declaration re: Ex Parte Notice tells the court that you have given the other party the required notice of the fact that you are seeking an ex parte application, or the reasons you are excused from doing so.

EX PARTE APPLICATIONS - FAMILY LAW

Continued

- 5. HOW DO I GIVE NOTICE? Before 10:00 a.m. on the court day before the hearing, the party asking for an ex parte order must:
 - Notify all other parties or attorneys of the nature of the relief sought, and the date, time and place for the presentation of the application, and
 - Try to determine whether the opposing party will appear to oppose the application. (CRC 3.1202)
 - Notice can only be waived if it would cancel out the benefit of the requested relief or frustrate the purpose of the proposed order, or if the applicant would suffer immediate and irreparable injury before notice could be given. Notice may be excused if following a good faith attempt, the giving of notice is not possible.
 - Even if you have not given notice by 10:00 a.m. the court day before the ex parte appearance, the clerk must not reject the ex parte application for filing and must present it to the appropriate judicial officer for consideration. (CRC 3.1205)
- 6. HOW DO I TELL THE COURT WHAT I WANT? Use Local Form FL-06(B) Application in Support of Ex Parte Request to state the facts that support your request for relief. Include:
 - Whether the order you are seeking will result in a change of the status quo. If you do not tell the court this information, you could be ordered to pay attorney's fees or costs incurred to return to the status quo.
 - Facts within your own personal knowledge, rather than your personal feelings and fears.
 - The reason the request cannot be heard on the court's regular law and motion calendar.
- 7. WHAT HAPPENS NEXT? Make an extra copy of your forms and take them to the family law filing clerk with your Request for Order FL-300 and include Temporary Order FL-305 if temporary order is being requested. Ex parte hearings are held at 1:30 p.m. in Department 3. The clerk will take your papers and the file to the judicial officer to review prior to the date and time of your previously scheduled ex parte hearing. At the ex parte hearing, the court may decide whether or not to grant relief based only on the pleadings, without listening to oral argument or testimony. Take a proposed order to Court.
- 8. GIVE A COPY OF YOUR PAPERS TO THE OTHER PARTY. Parties appearing at the ex parte hearing must serve the application or written opposition on all parties appearing at the first reasonable opportunity.
- 9. COME TO THE EX PARTE HEARING. You must appear in person at the ex parte hearing unless you have a stipulation for an order or other circumstances set forth in CRC 3.1207.
- 10. ORDER AFTER HEARING: If the court signs the order, a copy of it must be served on the other party within 24 hours.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF IMPERIAL

Grandparent Visitation

A grandparent may request visitation with a grandchild by filing a petition for visitation. If the parents of the grandchild are married, the grandparent may file a petition for visitation ONLY IF:

- The parents are now living separately and apart on a permanent or indefinite basis;
- One parent has been absent for more than one month without the other parent knowing the whereabouts of the absent parent;
- One of the parents joins in the petition with the grandparent;
- The child is not residing with either parent; or,
- The child has been adopted by a stepparent.

The court may grant reasonable visitation rights with a grandchild ONLY IF both:

- The court finds that there is a prior relationship between the grandparent and the grandchild that created a bond such that visitation is in the best interest of the child, and
- In deciding the matter, the court balanced the interest of the child(ren) in having visitation with the grandparents against the right of the parent to exercise their parental authority.

The court's decision may depend upon whether the child's parent(s) object(s) to visitation by the grandparent, and upon whether the visitation would conflict with a right of custody or visitation of a parent who is not a party to the proceeding.

Starting a case:

- Petition for Grandparent Visitation Local Form (FL-15)
- Summons Judicial Council Form (FL-110)
- Proof of Personal Service Judicial Council Form (FL-330)
- Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act Judicial council Form (FL-105)

The petitioner shall give notice of the petition by personal service under Code of Civil Procedure Section 415.10 to each of the parents of the child, any stepparent, and any person who has physical custody of the child.

Grandparents and Other Close Relatives Where One or More Parents is Deceased-California Family Code Section 3102

If either parent of a minor child is deceased, the children, siblings, parents and grandparents of the deceased parent may be granted reasonable visitation with the child upon a finding that the visitation would be in the best interest of the child. See California Family Code Section 3102 for more details.

INSTRUCTIONS: FAMILY LAW JUDGMENT AFTER TRIAL

A minute order from the court trial may contain the decisions in your case, but it is not the order because it is not signed by the judge. You must prepare a Judgment for the judge to sign.

1	Prepare the Judgment	Get a copy of the Court's minute order of the trial. Fill out the proposed Judgment according to the minute order. You can buy forms in the clerk's office or download them for free at http://www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm . Start with FL-180, and answer the date and courtroom where the case was heard, the name of the judge and the people who attended, and what kinds of decisions the judge made. Add additional pages as needed to accurately reflect the decision. Form FL-190 is also needed.
2	Serve a copy	After you finish the proposed judgment, you must send a copy to the other party for approval. Make a copy. Send it with the "Letter to the Other Party" attached to this packet that explains time limits and options.
3	Wait	The other party has 10 calendar days after service to review the proposed orders. If you receive the proposed judgment after trial, obtain a copy of the minute order and compare for accuracy. If there are mistakes, you must notify the other party within 10 calendar days. You may wish to consult with an attorney to see what else you can do. If the proposed judgment is correctly prepared, you may take no action and let your 10 days pass.
4	File	After waiting the 10 days, you may now take the proposed judgment with the "Letter to the Court," to the filing clerk. Be sure to file your original with at least two copies. Include two self addressed and stamped envelopes for the clerk to mail back each party's copies signed by the judge.
5	Court Serves signed Copies	After the judge signs the orders, the clerk will use your stamped envelopes to mail a copy to you and the other party.
6	For Child Support Orders	If there are any child support orders, both parties must complete a Child Support Case Registry (FL-191). You may also fill out an Income Withholding for Support (FL-195) for payments to be processed through the State Disbursement Unit. To find out more about wage assignments, call the State Disbursement Unit at 866-325-1010, or the California Department of Child Support Services at 866-901-3212.

If you have any questions or concerns and are not represented by an attorney in this case, you may contact the Access Center at accesscenter@imperial.courts.ca.gov.

This instructional packet is designed as a tool to assist you. It may not include all information that is legally required, is not legal advice, and should not be used as a substitute for legal advice from an attorney licensed by the State Bar of California. To find out how to hire an attorney and/or obtain a consultation with a family law attorney see http://www.courts.ca.gov/1084.htm

Superior Court of California County of Imperial Alternative Dispute Resolution Information

NOTICE: In all general civil cases, plaintiff and cross-complaints are required to serve this form on each defendant or new party to the action.

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) may help resolve disputes without trial. ADR is usually less expensive, less formal and less time consuming than a trial. ADR can also be less adversarial and may provide parties with the opportunity for more creative and/or flexible outcomes than can be achieved in trial. Since various ADR methods may or may not be appropriate in any particular case, it is advisable to consult with an attorney about options available.

Mediation

An impartial person called a "mediator" helps the parties try to reach a mutually agreeable resolution of the dispute. The outcome is decided only by the parties. If the parties do not reach an agreement, the mediator does not make any decisions or recommendations to the court. Mediation is useful when the parties have a relationship they wish to preserve. Mediation may not be as useful if one of the parties is unwilling to compromise, or if one party has significant power over the other. The only court sponsored mediation service available in the Superior Court is for child custody and visitation.

Arbitration

An impartial person called an "arbitrator" listens to evidence and argument from both sides and then decides the outcome. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence may be relaxed. Pursuant to Imperial Superior Court Local Rules, Division 5 - Arbitration, Rule 3.5.0, all non-exempt unlimited civil cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed $50,000 as to any plaintiff, and all limited civil cases shall be submitted to arbitration under CCP 1141.10 et seq.

Settlement Conference

The parties and their attorneys meet with a judicial officer to discuss possible settlement of the dispute. The judicial officer assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case, but does not make any decision. Settlement conferences are scheduled upon request of the parties and order of the judge assigned to the case.

Additional Information

For information on Superior Court of California, County of Imperial's arbitration process see the Local Rules at www.imperial.courts.ca.gov and Stipulation to Use of Alternative Dispute Resolution Process, Local Form GN-02.

GUIDELINES FOR JUVENILE ASSESSMENT AND

COLLECTION OF COSTS FOR COURT-RELATED SERVICES

- 1. Policy and Authority. Based on ability to pay, it shall be the policy of the Superior Court System to assess sums representing costs for legal services, probation related services and courtappointed investigations, as hereinafter set forth. Specifically, assessments shall be made to individuals for services as follows:
 - (a) adult defendants for costs of legal services provided by court-appointed counsel (Penal Code Section 987.8);
 - (b) convicted defendants for services rendered by the Probation Department as referenced by Penal Code Section 1203.1b;
 - (c) parents or other persons responsible for the support of minors for legal services provided in either juvenile delinquency or dependency proceedings (Welfare & Institutions Code Section 903.1)¹; and (d) parents (or other persons seeking custody or visitation) in family law matters where the Court directs the Probation Department (or other court-appointed investigator) to conduct custody/visitation evaluation or supervision (Family Code Section 3112).²
- 2. Costs for Services. In each case where the Court determines ability to pay, the Court shall make an order requiring the appropriate person or persons to pay for all or part of the costs incurred for services referenced under 1 above, as further discussed below. To assist the Court with respect to determination of amounts to be assessed, the Public Defender, other court-appointed counsel and Probation Department shall provide information as set forth below:
 - (a) Public Defender and Other Court-Appointed Counsel. The Public Defender and other attorneys who provide criminal defense services, or services in Juvenile Court, by Court appointment, shall annually establish an hourly fee which shall represent the average hourly cost of providing such services. (Government Code Section 27712).³ Said counsel shall keep a record of the time devoted on a case by case basis so as to be able to advise the Court and Probation Department of the amount of time devoted to a case as of the time of disposition.
 - (b) Probation Department. As required by Penal Code Section 1203.1b, the Probation Department shall develop a payment schedule for reimbursement for the costs of preplea or presentence investigations based on income. The Probation Department shall likewise submit information relating to the bases of its charges for other services referenced by Section 1203.1b and for civil custody and/or visitation related services as referenced in 1(d) above. Charges imposed for services rendered by the Probation Department shall not exceed the actual average cost thereof.

¹In addition to assessments for costs incurred in providing legal services to minors in dependency proceedings, assessments shall be made for legal services provided in such proceedings to other family members as authorized by Section 903.1 of the Welfare & Institutions Code.

²Assessments may be in addition to those made for costs of mediation.

²Hourly rates established for legal services provided in Juvenile Court proceedings shall be submitted to the Board of Supervisors for approval so as to comply with Section 904 of the Welfare & Institutions Code.

- 3. Determination of Ability to Pay; Recommendation by Probation. Every court order which requires a defendant (parent or other responsible person) to reimburse the County for all or a portion of costs for services incurred, shall be based on ability to pay. In determining ability to pay, the following procedures shall be followed:
 - (a) Financial Disclosure. Completion of financial disclosure forms shall be required as follows:
 - (1) Each adult defendant who requests appointment of either the Public Defender or other court-appointed counsel shall be required to complete a financial disclosure statement as authorized by Penal Code Section 987(c).⁴
 - (2) Parents (or other responsible persons) shall be required to complete financial disclosure statements in cases involving minors in juvenile delinquency or dependency cases in Juvenile Court.
 - (3) Parents (or other persons seeking custody or visitation) in family law disputes shall be required to provide income and expense statements as required by the Family Code. (Applications for fee waivers may also be submitted as authorized by law.)
 - (b) Interview and Evaluation By Probation. In every case where the Court intends to issue an order requiring a defendant (or parent or other responsible person) to pay costs incurred for services rendered as referenced under 1 above, the Court may require the defendant (parent or other responsible person) to be interviewed by a representative from the Probation Department concerning his or her ability to pay for costs of services. The Court may also direct the responsible person) to make payments.⁵
 - (c) Recommendation by Probation. Upon request by the Court, the Probation Department shall in writing recommend the amount of payment and the manner in which payments shall be made to the County, based upon the defendant's (or parent's or other responsible person's) ability to pay. The Probation Department's recommendation shall contain a summary of the facts upon which it is based; and, it shall take into account, without limitation, the amount of any fine imposed and the amount of any restitution ordered paid.
 - (d) Right to Hearing. A copy of the written recommendation of the Probation Department, if any, shall be provided to the defendant (or parent or other responsible person) and to ⁴A defendant who is bound-over after having been provided court-appointed counsel by the Municipal Court may be required to complete a new or supplemental financial disclosure statement on requesting court-appointed counsel by the Superior Court.

⁵So as to comply with Welfare & Institutions Code Section 903.45, request shall be made of the Board of Supervisors to designate the Chief Probation Officer as county financial evaluation officer pursuant to Section 27750 of the Government Code. (Refer also to Welfare & Institutions Code Section 903.45.)

court-appointed counsel. The defendant (or parent or other responsible person) shall be advised the recommendation is not final until ordered by the Court and that the defendant (or parent or other responsible person) is entitled to a hearing if in disagreement with the recommendation.

4. Order For Payment; Hearing.

- (a) When a defendant (parent or other responsible person) agrees with the recommendation of the Probation Department, the Probation Department shall prepare a proposed order, containing the written consent of the defendant (or parent or other responsible person); and, shall submit the same to the Court for signature.⁶
- (b) If the defendant (parent or other responsible person) does not agree with the recommendation of the Probation Department, a hearing shall be scheduled before the Court to determine the amount of payment, if any, and the manner in which payments shall be made. The following rules shall apply to the hearing:
 - (1) The defendant (parent or other responsible person) shall be entitled to the opportunity to be heard in person, to disclosure of evidence against him or her, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence and to confront and cross-examine the representative of the Probation Department, who prepared the recommendation, and any other adverse witnesses.
 - (2) At the hearing, if the Court determines the defendant (parent or other responsible person) has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the Court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant (or parent or other responsible person) to pay that sum to the County in the manner in which the Court believes reasonable and compatible with his or her financial ability.⁷
- 5. Collections. The Probation Department (with the assistance of the office of County Counsel) shall be responsible for collecting sums ordered paid pursuant to these guidelines. Subject to approval by the Board of Supervisors, collection procedures may be developed which involve utilization of outside collection agencies.

With the consent of the defendant (parent or other responsible person), the Court may at the hearing direct the Probation Officer and defendant (parent or other responsible person) to further meet to work out a schedule for making payments to satisfy the amount ordered for payment by the Court. (The order when signed and entered shall have the force of a judgment.)

⁶It is the Court's intention the order when so signed and entered shall have the force and effect of a judgment.

⁷When the Court determines that the defendant's (parent's or other responsible person's) ability to pay is different from the recommendation of the Probation Department, the Court shall state on the record the reason for its order.

Transferring property when someone dies...

Do I have to go to Court to inherit property from someone who dies?

Not always. If you have the legal right to inherit personal property, like money in a bank account or stocks, and the estate is worth $150,000 or less, you may not have to go to court.

There is a simplified process you can use to transfer the property to your name, but this process is not for real property, like a house.

How do I know if the estate is worth $150,000 or less?

To calculate the value of the estate:

Include:

- All real and personal property
- All life insurance or retirement benefits that will be paid to the estate

Do not include:

- Cars
- Real property outside of California
- Property held in trust, including a living trust.
- Real or personal property that the person who died owned with someone else (joint tenancy)
- Property (community, quasicommunity or separate) that passed directly to the surviving spouse

- Life insurance, death benefits or other assets not subject to probate that pass directly to the beneficiaries
- Unpaid salary or other compensation up to $15,000 owed to the person who died.
- The debts or mortgages of the person who died

For a complete list, see Probate Code § 13050

Can I subtract the deceased person's debts to calculate the value of the estate?

No. You are not allowed to subtract the debts of the person who died.

What if the estate is in Probate?

You cannot use this process, unless the Personal Representative of the estate agrees in writing to let you do so.

Can anyone use this simplified Process?

You qualify if you have the legal right to inherit property from the person who died. You must be a beneficiary in the Will or an heir if the person died without a Will. Other people may qualify too, like the guardian or conservator of the estate. For a complete list, see Probate Code § 13051
